

What Have You Learned From Curley, Swirley & Twirley's Pleasure Treasure Adventure?

Find Out With Our Fun Comprehension Questions And Discovery Exercises!

Note: Please choose the appropriate questions for your listener's age.
There are some trick and silly questions for research and discovery.

1. What are the names of the three hermit crabs?
2. What fell from the sky when they played in the sand?
3. Why do birds drop their feathers?
4. What else do birds drop?
5. How many legs does each hermit crab have?
6. How many legs do all three crabs have all together?
7. What is another name for the hermit crab's claw hand?
8. Who had the idea to go on a pleasure treasure adventure?
9. How did each crab like to dance? Lesson: Practice mobility exercises with your children & students
10. What is a compass?
11. Who made the compass in the sand?
12. Where is the north-pole?
13. In what direction was the ocean in the story?
14. In what direction were the trees?
15. Which way were the rocks by the docks?
16. What did Curley, Swirley & Twirley find by the rocks by the docks?
17. Which way were the sand dunes?

18. Which way were the mountains?
19. What does hue mean?
20. What is a synonym for the word mimic?
21. Who copied whom when they peddled their legs like the fins of the nearby fish in the ocean?
22. Why is it good to have a plan? Lesson: Talk about goals, safety and responsibilities.
23. What were the three rules Curley, Swirley and Twirley were to follow if they split up on the trip?
24. How many legs does an octopus have?
25. Do octopi have suckers that pucker?
26. Do octopi eat crab?
27. How many feet long was the eel in the story?
28. Shimmering steel is similar to what color?
29. How many guppies flittered away from the crabbies snipping ways?
30. Were they lucky guppies?
31. Do sharks eat guppies? Search the internet, the library, or ask an expert at your local zoo or marine organization. Lesson: Talk about safety and security in numbers, the dangers of strangers and unrecognized parked cars.
32. Do you like Gummies?
33. Do you like seaweed? If you said 'Yes' to liking gummies then you may like seaweed. Research how some gummies are made.
34. How did the stingray help Curley, Swirley and Twirley?
35. What is a frond?
36. How tall can a palm tree grow?
37. What is the lifespan of a mature coconut palm tree?
38. Would you like to adopt hermit crabs? Visit your local pet store and be sure to read all the care instructions to keep your crabbies happy.
39. How many points does a starfish have?

40. All starfish?
41. What does a falling coconut sound like?
42. Have you ever heard a coconut fall to the ground?
43. Who was the first to nudge the palm tree in the story?
44. Do you like coconut?
45. Are coconuts nutritious? Search the Internet or library for sweet coconut recipes.
46. What is a coconut? A fruit, a nut or a seed? Maybe all three?!
47. In what direction does the sun set?
48. Can anyone anywhere always see the sun set in the same direction?
49. In what direction does the sun rise?
50. Where do Curley, Swirley and Twirley sleep?
51. What do they dream of?
52. How does the moon provide light in the night?
53. How many stars are in the sky?
54. How far is the moon? “Very far” is a good answer and so is about 239,000 miles from Earth.

Check out this interesting internet site for teachers and star gazers: www.stardate.org

So What Have You Learned Today?